“And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.” (Luke 2:10,11)

“And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.” (Luke 1:46-48)

“And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt. And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I. And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God. And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.” (Exodus 3;2-8)

Introduction

Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.” (Psalms 119:164). Praising is the highest form of prayer, the relation between man and his creator “. Singing is as old as the human race: “Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.” (Exodus 15:1).

Our Egyptian ancestors are known for their hymnals and music. The Book of the Dead is a book of songs they recited during the funeral processions and the many days of their grieving. Happy singing was even more abundant as is evident on the walls of the temples all over southern Egypt. The Coptic Church inherited a wealth of tunes from our Egyptian ancestors. These tunes were applied to create the Psalmody (Psalms) of the Church. There are five tunes to Coptic Church Singing: Annual, Festive, Shaaneen, Adreeby, and Advent. This book lists translations from the Advent Psalmody. Annual is what we sing daily in the Church. Festive is used during the Celebration of the Feasts of the Church, Shaaneen comes from the Hebrew word “Osana” meaning save us and is used on the Feast of The Entrance of Christ the Savior to the temple and on the feasts of the Cross. Adreeby is the sad tune used in the Paschal Week and in Funeral Services. Advent is used during the Coptic Month of Keyahk or Koiak, and it is an anxious and joyful waiting period in the life of the Church. The Advent or Keyahk tune reflects that mood of anxious-joyful waiting “But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,” (Galatians 4:4).

There are two Psalmody Books: The annual and the Advent also called “Keyahk” because the season of Advent or the Marian Month as it is also called happens to coincide with the month of Keyahk or Koiak in the Coptic Calendar.

The Book of the Psalmody of Keyahk is twice as thick as the annual Psalmody Book. It follows the same order of singing and praising followed in the Coptic Orthodox Church. Praising starts with the evening prayer if it is in the evening or the morning prayers if it is in the morning. After the prayers is the singing and praising. The Marian or Advent Psalmody consists of 7 Marian Praises, 4 Psalis (Odes). The Marian Praises are called “theotekias” a reference to Mary the “Theotokos” (Mother of God in truth) as she was called by St. Cyril (Kyrillos) the Pillar of Faith (24th Patriarch of Alexandria, and Pope of the See of St. Mark). Psalis are also called “Hosaat” or odes. That is why sometimes in the Egyptian Colloquial they refer to the Advent events as “sabaaw arbaaw” meaning 7 and 4.

The First Ode is to praise God because He saved the people of Israel from slavery and delivered them out of Egypt. The Second Ode is to thank Him because His Mercy endures forever. The Third Ode is a personal thank to Him because He is Great and His Name is Great and is Greatly Blessed forever, the story of the three youth and the Lords Great wonders in saving them. The Fourth Ode is all praises based on the 148th Psalm of David.

The Theotekiaas are arranged according to the days of the week, one for each day. Praising the Virgin St. Mary because she was chosen from among all women to carry the Incarnate Word, God in the Flesh, who was Incarnate, meaning became human and was born from the Virgin Mary as full human in the fullness of time.

The Praise service includes also praises and glorification for many of the saints and martyrs. And is concluded with the Congregation of the Saints praise which is a work in progress because the Church can add names as more bearers of the cross, confessors, martyrs and saints are born and have shown their love to Christ our Lord. The Congregation praise is arranged to give glory to God in His Saints and Martyrs. They usually follow this with a song imploring the mercy of God: “Your Mercies My God are exceedingly many, Your Mercies My God are can not be counted, the drops of the waters are confined between your hands and the grains of the sand are all known to you, ... etc.” And the closing of prayer as customary in our Church. It is a great spiritual revival of one’s soul to attend the Advent Praise Service: “saba wa arbaa” (7 and 4).

Fr. Athanasius Eskander, Hegomen, Ontario Candad provided the translation of many parts, Mr. Mena Atef Rizkallah did a great job typing Fr. Athanassius contribution into MSWORD. May our Lord compensate both in heavenly Jerusalem.

Glory Always be to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, One God. Amen. Glory always be to Our Lord in His Saints from Adam to the End of Times. Amen.

THE FIRST CANTICLE

(Exodus 15)

(Translation provided by Fr. Athanasius Eskander, Ontario, Canada)

Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying,

“I will sing unto the Lord for He has triumphed gloriously.

“The horse and his rider has He thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and song, and He is become my salvation.

“He is my God, and I will prepare Him an habitation; my father’s God, and I will exalt Him.

“The Lord is a man of war. “The Lord” is His Name. Pharaoh’s chariots and his host has He cast into the sea.

“His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.

“The depths have covered them; they sank into the bottom as a stone.

“Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power. Thy right hand, O Lord, has dashed in pieces Thine enemies.

“And in the greatness of Thine excellency Thou hast overthrown them that rose up against Thee. Thou sentest forth Thy wrath which consumed them as stubble.

“And with the blast of Thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the flood stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

“The enemy said, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil. My lust shall be satisfied upon them. I will draw my sword, and my hand shall destroy them.’

“Thou didst blow with Thy wind; the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

“Who is like unto Thee, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like Thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

“Thou stretchedst out Thy right hand; the earth swallowed them. Thou, in Thy mercy hast led forth the people which Thou hast redeemed. Thou hast guided them in Thy strength unto Thine holy habitation.

“The people shall hear and be afraid. Sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.

“Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them.

“All the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away; fear and dread shall fall upon them.

“By the greatness of Thin arm they shall be as still as a stone, till Thy people pass over, O Lord; till the people pass over, which Thou hast purchased.

“Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of Thine inheritance; in the place, O Lord, which Thou hast made for Thee to dwell in;

“In the Sanctuary, O Lord, which Thy hands have established. The Lord shall reign forever and ever.

“For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots, and with his horsemen, into the sea.

“And the Lord brought again the waters of the sea upon them. But the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.”

And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with praises.

And Miriam answered them, “Sing ye to the Lord, for He has triumphed gloriously.

“The horse and his rider has He thrown into the sea. Sing ye to the Lord, for He has triumphed gloriously.”

The Lord told Moses, Tell Your People to Depart (A Praise on the First Ode)

The Lord told Moses,
tell your people to depart,
and strike the sea with the rod,
an entrance will be opened.

Moses rose in the night,
and struck the sea quickly,
a long passage opened,
and a wide road it was.

The sea was split in half,
and they passed it all together,
and they walked in the sea,
on the lower lands there is.

And the column of light was a guide,
for the road to lead them,
in front of all of Israel,
and with His light He covered them.

They treaded on the reefs and rocks,
in the middle of the sea,
and the water was like a fence,
high to the right and left.

Pharaoh dared and entered,
with his horses following them,
and he had all his soldiers,
and his slave following them.

The column of cloud got to them,
and separated the two rows,
and pharaoh remained in the dark,
and his servants were with him

The Egyptians said we escape,
away from them,
from fighting the Israelites,
the lord fights for them.

The Lord told Moses,
strike the sea back,
he struck the sea with the rod,
the water returned as it was.

The carriages of pharaoh turned over,
and his servants were defeated,
they drowned in the water,
and covered in darkness.

A strong storm came,
in the middle of the sea,
and the waves closed in,
and the water covered the bottom.

Dived pharaoh and drowned,
and his armies with him,
and they became like lead,
and settled in the bottom.

The sun shines this hour,
when this mighty one drowned,
and Israel had courage,
crossed the sea and passed.

They passed the sea with joy,
walking on the reefs and rocks,
and they flew like eagles,
and descended on the top of the mount of Torr.

Hence Moses praised ,
with all of Israel,
and all of the leaders with him,
praising and singing.

Moses and the people,
spoke with one mouth,
come ye praise the Lord,
because he is by glory glorified.

The horses and their riders,
drowned in the red sea,
and Israel was saved,
from shame and disgrace.

This is my Lord,
I praise His name always,
This is the god of my fathers,
the maker of all wonders.

He destroyed the fighters,
His name be glorified,
pharaoh and his forces,
“av veer voroo eh evioom”

The best of his tri-carriages,
in the middle of the sea drowned,
and his army soldiers,
in the bottom of the sea rested.

The water covered them,
and they drowned in the deep,
like rocks thrown,
and the sea closed on them.

Your right hand O'my God,
was glorified by your strength,
Your right hand O'my God,

destroyed all enemies.

O'Lord with your glory,
you destroyed the guilty enemy,
and the spirit of your anger,
consumed them like a wreck.

(Amen. Kyrie-Laison, Kyrie-Laison, Kyrie-Laison)

N.B. In the New Testament Church Egypt/Pharaoh are symbols of the evil world.
Israel/Zion are symbol of the people of God (The Church) from all nations, and all races.

THE FIERY BUSH

A Praise to the Virgin Mary From Thursday Theotekia (The Fiery bush that Moses Had Seen in the Wilderness)

(Translation is provided by Fr. Athanasius Eskander, Ontario, Canada)

Refrain:

The Fiery bush that Moses
Had seen in the wilderness,
Burning with fire from within -
And the bush was not consumed -

Is a figure of the blessed Mother of the Light,
Who carried the Divine Ember
Nine full months in her womb,
With a perpetual virginity.

Verses:

I open my mouth and speak,
About the hidden mysteries,
And honour Mary, the Mother of the Light
Blessed are you among women.

++++

Gabriel announced to her
The incarnation of the Word.
She carried her Lord in her womb:
Blessed are you among women.

++++

David your father spoke of you,
With prophetic sayings;
The God of gods became your son:
Blessed are you among women.

++++

You are the mother of your Creator,
Who came to save the human race.
He came and dwelt in your womb:
Blessed are you among women.

++++

The forgiver of all sins,
The source of all blessings,
He loved our race and took our form:
Blessed are you among women.

++++

He bowed down the heavens,
And descended to earth,
While still in His Father's bosom:
Blessed are you among women.

++++

Of all people, who has obtained
What you received, O Mary?
All generations proclaim and say:
Blessed are you among women.

++++

O Virgin Mary, we bless you,
And praise by day and night
The One Who chose your goodness:
Blessed are you among women.

++++

(Amen. Kyrie-Laison, Kyrie-Laison, Kyrie-Laison)

To praise the daughter of Zion
(A Praise (Wattis) to the Virgin Mary From Friday Theotekia)

I begin with the name of the Lord Jesus,
And ask from His goodness in awe,
To raise my mind to the heavenly,
To praise the daughter of Zion.

Beginning of my sayings and rhyme,
I greet the first born,
Because all my maladies,
Through her with the pain are cured.

My soul longs for her,
And I am in between her hands,
Because I depend on her,
To be save from the evil one.

Come to our help O' Mother of Light,
Please Mary from all evil,
Who from her came the well known,
The Creator of all flesh.

All my thought became like night,
Because I could not see the light,
A virgin without spouse,
Carried the hidden mystery.

Creator of the seen and the unseen,
How could the womb contain,
Ye all wise and learned,
Tell me how it can be.

She is called the mother of mercy,
And also the full of grace,
The mother of the Logos,
Many about her prophesied.

Let me praise you and say,
Blessed are you Celibate virgin,
From whom came the well known,
And the savior of all flesh.

The spirit of truth the Advocate,
Came as intermediary and with the good news,
To Him Praise Lord and Savior,
Knowing of what was and what will be.

Adorned Mary with His Advent,
And Completed what the witnesses said,
Magi's came and worshiped Him,
And with precious Gifts they were introduced.

Our Lord accepted suffering,
Died, was buried in the tomb and He arose,
And Mary was filled with joyful peace,
And He also appeared to the Apostles.

You were likened to Noah's Ark,
You healed our wounds,
And you made Adam to be in joy,
With unexplained tribute.

Mary, you became a lamp,
And Your Light in the world showed,
The one, whose aroma spread,
And by all the righteous smelled.

When the speaking sheep lost his way,
the Shepherd sought the lost one to redeem,
When He completed His true promise,
And appeared to us in the flesh,

Blessed are you O' Full of Grace,
Who became like a lighthouse,
And you became like a fishing hook,

To the intellect of the earthly.

You were covered by the Cherubim,
O' Mary daughter of Joachim,
Truly it is a great mystery,
not understood by the orderly.

Our Lord Emanuel,
Meaning God with Us,
He came and saved us,
And to God we became children.

The unseen how could we see,
The unlimited how could he be contained,
The unspoken how could they see,
With the eyes of the humanly.

Jesus opened the door of paradise,
And with Him all souls were pleased,
He brought back life with His Holy Name,
And Gave to us His body as proof.

You became a mother to your Lord,
O' Ye High, blessed are you,
Your elegance and glory O' Mary,
Are beyond our poets to explain.

All tongues could not speak,
And I a sinner put my hope in you,
My mind could not contain you,
And My thoughts are just so weak.

I am still begging you,
To lead me to your Son's way,
We all Bless you,
Because you became to us Zion.

I need a wise and rational one,
To help me to be able to say,
Praise and hymnals worthy of you,
So I can in you feel safe.

The Lord so the lost sheep,
And to David He gave a promise,
From your seed will be,
The Promise and He did not retract.

The promise He did complete,
In the fullness of time He came,
From the House of David He appeared,
And walked on Earth Like the humanly.

I am the sinner made noises,
Asking for joy exceeding,
Abu Al-saad from Abu Teig,
The Servant of all who write poetry.

My mind with guilt made me write,
Because in the Psalms I did read,
If the Lord does not build,
Vanity is the work of who builds.

O' Jesus Our Savior,
Protect the life of Anba (Shenouda) the Patriarch,
And His Companions our Bishops,
And our gathered brothers.

And the peace of the Lord be with you,
O' Ye gathered all together here,
And His Pleasant Voice shall you hear,
On the day of Resurrection you all will be.

THE KIAK CANTICLE

(Translation Provided by Fr. Athanasius Eskander, Ontario, Canada)

O sing unto the Lord a new song, sing unto the Lord all the earth. Declare among the heathen His glory and among all people His wonders. For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised. He is to be feared above all gods. Alleluia.

I will bless the Lord at all times, His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord. The humble shall hear thereof and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me and let us exalt His name together. Alleluia.

Thou that dwellest between the Cherubims, shine forth. Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up Thy strength, and come and save us. Turn us again, O God, and cause Thy face to shine, and we shall be saved. Alleluia.

He bowed the heavens also, and came down, and darkness was under His feet, and He rode upon a Cherub, and did fly. Yea, He did fly upon the wings of the wind. He made darkness His secret place, His pavilion round about Him. Alleluia.

The wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold. When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Salmon. Alleluia.

The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan, an high hill as the hill of Bashan. Why leap ye, ye high hills? This is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the Lord will dwell in it for ever. Alleluia.

Upon Thy right hand did stand the queen, arrayed in vesture of inwoven gold, adorned in varied colours. Alleluia.

Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house. So shall the King greatly desire thy beauty; for He is thy Lord. Alleluia.

And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favour. Alleluia.

The King's daughter is all glorious within in golden borders, clothed round about with varieties. After her, shall virgins be brought to the King: her neighbours shall be brought to Thee. They shall be brought with gladness and rejoicing: they shall be brought into the temple of the King. Alleluia.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be feared in the city of our God, in the mountain of His holiness. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, in mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the Great King. Alleluia.

His foundation is in the holy mountains. The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob. Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Alleluia.

And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her; and the Highest Himself establisheth her. Alleluia.

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them. O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in Him. Alleluia.

Who maketh His angels spirits, His servants a flaming fire. Alleluia.

Who maketh the cloud His chariot: Who walketh upon the wings of the wind. Alleluia.

Bless the Lord, ye His angels, that excel in strength, that do His commandments. Bless ye the Lord all His hosts; ye servants of His, that do His pleasure. Alleluia.

Before the angels will I praise Thee; I will worship toward Thine holy temple. Alleluia.

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament sheweth His handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language. Alleluia.

Where their voice is not heard, their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to end of the world. Alleluia.

The Lord shall give the word to them that preach good tidings with great power. The King of power is of the beloved. Alleluia.

Give thanks unto the Lord; call upon His name; make known His deeds among the people; talk ye of all His wondrous works. Glory ye in His Holy Name. Alleluia.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints. O Lord, I am Thy servant, and the son of Thine handmaid: Thou hast loosed my bonds. I will offer to Thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all His people, in the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Alleluia.

God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints. He is the God of Israel. He will give strength unto His people. Let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God; yea, let them exceedingly rejoice before God. Blessed be the Lord God. Alleluia.

Gird Thy sword upon Thy thigh, O Most Mighty; with Thy glory and Thy majesty ride prosperously. Alleluia.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and the adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. Alleluia.

The salvation of the righteous is of the Lord's. He is their strength in the time of trouble. And the Lord shall help them and deliver them: He shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in Him. Alleluia.

Let the righteous rejoice with joy. They cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distress. Alleluia.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken. Alleluia.

Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart. Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous, and give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness. Alleluia.

The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. Alleluia.

The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgement. The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide. Alleluia.

Thy saints shall speak of the glory of Thy kingdom, and talk of Thy power. He will fulfill the desire of them that fear Him: He also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love Him. Alleluia.

Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart. For this shall everyone that is godly pray unto Thee in a time when Thou mayest be found. Alleluia.

Let Thy tender mercies speedily prevent us, for we are brought very low. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Thy Name. O

Lord, deliver us, and purge away our sins, for Thy Name's Sake.

Alleluia.

Let them exalt him in the church of his people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders; and maketh him families like a flock. The righteous see it and rejoice. Alleluia.

The Lord hath sworn and will not repent: Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. Alleluia.

May God be merciful unto us, and bless us and cause His face to shine upon us. Alleluia.

O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever. Alleluia.

Who is a wise man, let him keep this and understand the mercies of the Lord. Alleluia.

Bless me. Lo, metanoia. Forgive me, my fathers and my brethren; pray for me. In love, I ask you, remember me.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Now, and at all times, and to the age of all ages. Amen.

Who can speak of

The honour of the Tabernacle,
Which Moses made
On Mount Sinai.

He made it with glory,
As commanded by the Lord,
According to the pattern
Shown unto him.

Therein Aaron
And his sons served
The example and shadow
Of the heavenly things.

They likened you to it,
O Virgin Mary,
The true Tabernacle,
Wherein dwelt God.

Wherefore we
Exalt you befittingly,
With prophetic
Hymnology.

For they spoke of you
With great honour
O Holy City,
Of the Great King.

We entreat and pray,
That we may win mercy,
Through your intercessions
With the Lover of mankind.

THE GOSPEL FROM LUKE 1:46-50

And Mary said, “My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For He hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For He that is might hath done to me great things; and Holy is His Name. And His mercy is on them that fear Him from generation to generation.”

Of Shittim wood,
That was overlayed

And a Holy Humanity,
Begotten without seed,
Consubstantial with us,
According to the Economy.

That is which He
Has taken from you,
And made on with Him,
As a hypostasis.

Wherefore everyone
Magnifies you,
O my lady, the Mother of God,

Hope to win mercy,
Through your intercessions
With the Lover of mankind.

Of Israel
Brought gifts unto
The Tabernacle of the Lord:

Overlayed with gold,
Within and without.

THE GOSPEL FROM LUKE 1:51-55

“He hath shewed strength with his arm; He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the might from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich He hath sent empty away. He hat holpen His servant Israel, in remembrance of His mercy; as he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.”

The place of
The Holy of Holies,
In the Second Tabernacle.

You too, O Mary,
Thousands of thousands,
And myriads of myriads,

Who was in your womb,

That we call you
The golden Pot,
That had the Manna:

In the Tabernacle,
As a testimony to
The children of Israel:

Which the Lord God
Did unto them,
In the wilderness of Sinai.

Have borne in your womb
The rational Manna,
Which came from the Father:

And have born Him without blemish.
He gave unto us
His honoured Body and Blood,
And we lived forever.

Wherefore we
Exalt you befittingly,

And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways; to give knowledge of salvation unto His people by the remission of their sins.”

(Part Five)

You are the Candlestick
Made of pure gold,

Light of the world,
Out of the Light
Unapproachable:

Who was incarnate

He gave light to us,
Who were sitting in darkness
And the shadow of death:

Who brought oil for its lamps,
By day and by night.

O Virgin Mary,
Lights every man
That comes into the world.

His Father, as incense.

I trespass not
Whenever I call you,
The golden Censer:

Is offered
The choicest incense,
Before the Holiest:

The sins of the people,

Through the burnt offerings
And the savour of incense.

Hail to you, O Mary,
The fair dove,
Who has borne unto us
God the Logos.

You are the flower
Of incense,

Which blossomed from
The root of Jesse.

The rod of Aaron,
Which budded
Without watering,
Is a type of you.

Our God in truth,
Without human seed,
While being virgin.

Magnifies you,
O my lady, the Mother of God,
The ever-holy.

Hope to win mercy,
Through your intercessions

O holy Mary,
The Second Tabernacle
Of the Holies:

Wherein was placed
The rod of Aaron,
And the holy flower
Of incense.

You are clothed with purity,
Within and without,
O pure Tabernacle
Of the Righteous.

The higher orders
And the choirs of the just,
All glorify
Your blessedness.

Wherefore we

With prophetic
Hymnology.

With great honour
O Holy City,
Of the Great King.
